

Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

105.1472 312/Mills

October 25, 1922. In connection with the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Hudson Terminal and there boarded a train for New Brunswick, N.J.

Upon arrival at New Brunswick, N.J., Operative visited the vicinity of the Public Service Station located on Albany St. near George St., also the pool parlor at 425 George St., and in several places in the vicinity of Nelson St., and finally to the Telegraph Office located on George Street.

It would seem from the conversations gathered at the various above named places, that the general opinion is that Mrs. Hall is innocent of the matter, and that the affair was brought about through a grudge of Mr. Mills, and that he could tell more if he wanted to.

At about 10.05 p.m. an automobile bearing New Jersey State License #015-627, drove up to the Telegraph Office and three men left the car - All the reporters in the Telegraph Office then hurried to the side of the car, and a dark man who had left the car remarked, "Well, boys, there is going to be an arrest made."

Upon receiving the above information several of the reporters entered the Telegraph Office and sent messages.

A short time after the above mentioned time, two of the reporters in company of a woman, left the telegraph office and proceeded up Albany St. to the Walker Hotel. The woman in company of the two reporters was heard to remark that she intended to get an interview with Mrs. Hall on Thursday.

At about 11.15 p.m. the two above mentioned reporters and the woman companion left the Walker Hotel and returned to the Telegraph Office, joining the other reporters.

Operative after leaving the two reporters and the woman at the Telegraph Office, proceeded to the railroad station and boarded a train for New
